

HR BUSINESS SOLUTIONS INVITE YOU TO
THE HRBS ROUNDTABLE

DEVELOPING LEADERS

'HOW DO BIG BUSINESS AND SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOP THEIR LEADERS'

We are pleased to invite you to join this exclusive HR panel discussion forum where we will hear the story of how one large business and one small business embarked on the leadership development journey.

In this unique HRBS Roundtable we will hear two perspectives on how a large business and a small business successfully implemented a leadership development program that worked.

Ausenco

Craig Robinson, Director of Organisational Development of global engineering firm Ausenco will share his experiences on the objectives and challenges of delivering a global leadership development program. Craig will tell us how the program was developed, how they delivered great events, the key success factors and how they went about measuring success.

McVeigh

Bianca Smith is the Director of Corporate Services of an integrated architecture and engineering design firm called McVeigh Consultants, based in Newstead. Over the past six months Bianca has driven an in-house leadership assessment and leadership development program. Bianca will share with us her strategy, key success, reasons for introducing the program and provide her views on the leadership challenge of small business and the practical solutions to developing effective leaders.
